Sales clerk: Hello, can I help you?
 Man: Yes, we need two couches for our new house.
 Woman: One for two people and one for three people.
 Man: Oh, and we need a chair, too.
 Sales clerk: What color?
 Woman: Well, in our living room the carpet and curtains are white. Actually, the walls are white, too. We like white, but I'd like a colorful couch.
 Sales clerk: What about a red one?
 Man: Oh, no! I don't like red. Are there any brown ones?
 Sales clerk: Yes, there are. Over here.
 Woman: I don't really like brown. Look at those yellow ones over here. Aren't they nice?
 Man: Yes, they're very nice. How much are they?
 Sales clerk: The big one is eight hundred dollars and the small one is six hundred.
 Man: They're very expensive!
 Woman: I know, but they're so pretty. How about if we don't buy the chair?
 Man: I'm not sure.
 Sales clerk: If you buy both sofas, there is a discount of a hundred and fifty dollars.
 Woman: And they'll look so good with the pictures on the walls and the plants ...
 Man: Are you sure these are the couches you want?
 Woman: Yes, I'm sure.

Hello. I'm Tracey Sullivan and I'm a teacher at a big school here in the UK. I live in London, but I'm from Melbourne in Australia. I'm 29 and I'm married to Pierre. He's 33 and he's from France. He's not here at the moment because he's in New York for work. He's a photographer. We have two children, a boy and a girl, and Pierre has a son from his first marriage. My first language is English, but I speak French, too. My parents live in a small village in the countryside, so a city like London feels very big to me. I don't mind living in a city, but I prefer the quiet of the countryside. When my husband is here, we enjoy visiting the museums and the art galleries on the weekend. We also go to restaurants sometimes. There are many good French restaurants here in London, but there aren't many Australian ones!

This is one of my favorite dishes. You don't need to be a good cook to make it because it's very easy. Those of you who don't like eating meat all the time will really like it and it doesn't cost a lot of money to make. Make sure you have the following ingredients before you start: small, brown lentils (a kind of plant seed), two or three big onions, a red pepper, a can of tomatoes, garlic, and chilies. Make sure you don't put too many chilies in because they are spicy. Also, remember that you will need a big spoonful of natural yogurt or cream cheese at the end.

This is what you do: First, put the lentils in a pot of boiling water and cook until they are soft. This takes about thirty or forty minutes. After about fifteen or twenty minutes, you may need to add some more boiling water. When you do this, be careful. While the lentils are cooking, chop the onions and pepper, and fry them in a little oil. Cook them until the onions are soft and a little bit brown. Chop the garlic and chilies and add them to the onion. Check that you don't burn them. When the lentils are ready, add them to the onion and pepper mixture. Then, mix in the can of tomatoes, add a little water, and cook gently for another fifteen minutes. I like to serve the lentils with a spoonful of yogurt, but not everyone does this. Delicious!

71. You can make this dish even if you are not good at cooking.

- Alan: What are you looking at?
 Pauline: It's a website for volunteer jobs in the summer.
 Alan: That sounds interesting.
 Pauline: Yes, but I don't know what I'm good at. Any ideas?
 Alan: Well, you like being with children and you're an English language student.
 Pauline: What do you mean? Do you think I can teach English to children?
 Alan: Why not? Is there a job like that on the site?
 Pauline: Yes. It's in Africa somewhere. But it doesn't say where. It's for six months.
 Alan: You're free to go for six months. Why don't you apply online and see what it's all about?
 Pauline: Hmm, maybe.
 Alan: You're also good at sports. What about being a sports coach at a summer camp?
 Pauline: That's a good idea. I'm sure I could get a job in England rather than going all the way to Africa.
 Alan: There are so many camps all over the UK in the summer and you could work anywhere you want. I think the accommodation is free, and meals are also provided, I believe. The British Activity Providers Association (BAPA) supports 100 summer camps in the UK and Europe. They have camps all over England and in France, too.
 Pauline: I think that's a great idea because I love sports!

Read the comments about the books of Agatha Christie. Are the comments for or against her writing? Choose the correct option.

Agatha Christie is one of the most famous crime story writers of all time. She was born in Devon, in the UK, in 1890. Her parents didn't send her to school, but they taught her to read and write. They also taught her math and music. When she was a child she loved to read. Later, she worked in a hospital during World War I. After the war, she got married and moved to London with her husband. It was then that she started writing, but she found it difficult to get her book published. Finally, in 1920, her first book was published. Many people bought it and it was a big success. She went on to write over sixty books before her death in 1976. She also wrote many short stories, including some for television and radio. Her books and stories have been translated into more than one hundred languages. She is one of the most successful writers of all time because people all over the world read her books.

Man: Hello. Are you lost?

Woman: Yes, I think I am. I want to go to the library.

Man: The University Library?

Woman: Is there another one?

Man: Yes, there's the City Library. That one is the bigger one.

Woman: That's the one. The City Library. I have a meeting there in twenty minutes, but I don't know where it is. I don't live here.

Man: Where are you from?

Woman: I'm from Adelaide, in Australia. It's where a lot of the government buildings are.

Man: Oh, right.

Woman: I'm sorry, but I don't have much time. Could you tell me where the City Library is?

Man: I'm so sorry. Yes, of course. Go straight up the road here for about a hundred meters. Then turn right onto King's Street. Take the first road on the right. You'll see a bridge. OK so far?

Woman: Yes.

Man: Go across the bridge and you'll see a park. Don't go into the park. Go past it and go straight for another two hundred meters. The City Library is on the right. It's opposite the swimming pool.

Woman: You know the streets very well.
